

Dave Kramayenko BSc FGS
Operations and Wellsite Geologist davidkram@aol.com

- Over forty year's continuous oil field experience.
- 28 years Wellsite Geology experience with occasional Operations Geologist positions.
- Has taught Wellsite and Operations Geology courses for Shell at their global training centre in the Netherlands.
- Staff geologist for Exlog at their corporate headquarters in Sacramento.
- Strong soft skills in mentoring and training of Client and Service Company personnel, both onshore and offshore.
- Extensive Geosteering experience, co-ordination of a multi-disciplinary Wellsite team including Directional Drilling, MWD and LWD services together with Micro and Nanno Biostratigraphers, with the objective of optimum horizontal well placing.
- Experience of Geo/Bio steering while drilling under-balanced with coiled tubing.
- Experienced in low permeability/fractured carbonate reservoirs.
- Experience in ERD and HPHT wells.
- Core areas of experience, Denmark, Netherlands and Caspian Sea.
- Wider based Wellsite experience, including the Beaufort Sea, Alaska, Bering Sea, California, Congo, Caspian Sea and Abu Dhabi.
- Experience in work flow tools, Stratworks, Openworks and Open wells.
- Winlog expert user.
- Experience in wellsite formation evaluation, data acquisition, data management, pore pressure evaluation, drilling operations, preparation of Geological EWR, all aspects of QA/QC of Mud logging companies.
- Extensive coring experience, both sleeved and conventional, onsite core analysis, porosity/permeability. Sedimentological description of slabbled cores.
- Full offshore medical and OPITO FOETECTP.
- Member of IADC Drilling and Instrumentation Committee in 1980.